

TEST 10

Part 3:

1. Describe 2 pictures

In the first picture, I can see a woman with her daughter. The woman is wearing a white shirt and her daughter is wearing a blue striped t-shirt. They were looking at the jewelry in the display case. I guess the woman is buying jewelry for her daughter. They looked very happy. On the contrary, in the second picture, a woman is trying on clothes for her daughter. The little girl seemed to be excited when buying clothes for herself. Around them, there are a lot of clothes hanging on racks.

2. Describe the difference between the two pictures.

The two pictures show different ways that a mother and her child spend their money. In picture one, they go to a jewelry store and buy expensive items, such as rings and necklaces. This suggests that they have a lot of money and like to show it off. In picture two, they go to a clothing store and buy basic items, such as shirts and pants. This suggests that they have a limited budget and prioritize their needs over their wants.

3. Why do people like to buy expensive things?

People like to buy expensive things for different reasons. Firstly, people buy expensive things to show their status or wealth. They want to impress others or feel good about themselves. Secondly, they think they are better quality or more durable. They want to enjoy the benefits of the products or services they buy. Finally, they like them or they have a personal preference. They want to express their taste or style.

APTIS SPEAKING PART 3

Describe the 2 pictures

In the first picture, I can see a young woman shopping for bananas at a market. She looks focused, maybe checking if the bananas are fresh. In the second picture, there is a woman and a little girl shopping together in a supermarket. The child is pointing at the fruits, and they both look happy.

Both pictures show people buying fruits, but the first one is alone and in a market, while the second one is with family in a supermarket. I think shopping with someone is more fun because you can share the experience.

1. What are the benefits of shopping in these two places?

Shopping in a market is good because the food is often fresh and cheap. You can talk to the sellers and feel the local atmosphere. It's a fun place to shop. In supermarkets, you can find many things in one place. It is clean, organized, and has many choices. It's easy for families and busy people. Both places have good points, depending on what you want to buy.

2. Where do you think people will shop in the future?

In the future, I think many people will shop online because it's fast and easy. You can buy things from home, and they will deliver them to your house. But some people will still go to supermarkets or markets to buy fresh food. I think shopping will change, but people will use different ways depending on their needs. Maybe we will see more smart technology in shops too.

Describe the 2 pictures

In the first picture, there are many people relaxing on a crowded beach. There are umbrellas, towels, and people sunbathing or swimming. It looks noisy and full of energy. In the second picture, there is only one person sitting quietly by a lake in the mountains. The place looks peaceful and natural.

Both places are good for relaxing, but they are very different. The beach is lively and social, while the lake is calm and quiet. Personally, I prefer quiet places because they help me relax more.

1. What is your favorite place in the two pictures? Why?

I prefer the second picture, the natural setting by the river. I enjoy quiet and peaceful environments where I can relax and connect with nature. The sound of the water and the fresh air would make me feel refreshed. While the beach is exciting, I find the forest more relaxing and suitable for my personality.

2. Why do many people like going to different places on holiday?

People enjoy traveling to different places because they want to experience something new and escape their daily routines. Some people love the excitement of crowded beaches and fun activities, while others prefer the tranquility of nature to recharge their energy. Visiting diverse places also allows them to explore different cultures, scenery, and climates, making holidays more memorable.

Describe the 2 pictures

Both pictures show people eating, but the situations are quite different.

In the first picture, we can see a young man eating healthy food. He has a bowl of salad and many fresh fruits and juices in front of him. The background is very bright, which makes the food look fresh and healthy. He seems to be enjoying a nutritious meal alone.

In the second picture, there are three men sitting together and eating pizza. They look happy and are talking and laughing. It seems like they are having fun and enjoying each other's company, but the food is not very healthy.

1. Which food do you prefer?

I prefer vegetables because they are healthier and provide important nutrients. They also make me feel energized and are better for my overall well-being. While fast food can be tasty, I try to avoid it since it's often not as good for my health in the long run.

2. Why do people like to eat different types of food?

People like to eat different types of food for several reasons. First, variety in food makes meals more interesting and enjoyable. Second, different foods offer a range of flavors that people enjoy tasting. Finally, people eat different foods because they provide various nutrients, which help keep them healthy. Trying new dishes can also be a fun way to explore different cultures and enjoy new experiences.

Describe the 2 pictures

Both pictures show people doing activities in their free time, but they are very different.

In the first picture, we can see an elderly man doing a crossword puzzle. He looks very focused and calm. It seems like he is enjoying a quiet and relaxing activity that helps him use his brain and think deeply.

In the second picture, there is a young boy playing a computer game. He looks very excited and energetic. He is wearing headphones and using a mouse, so he is probably playing an online game. The activity looks fun and fast-paced.

1. What are the attractions of these activities?

The attractions of doing a crossword puzzle are that it helps improve thinking skills and can be a fun way to pass time. It's also satisfying when you find the right answers. Playing a computer game is exciting because it can be very entertaining and gives you the chance to explore different worlds or challenges. Both activities help people relax and have fun while also offering a sense of achievement.

2. Playing games is for children, not for adults. What do you think?

I think playing games is not only for children. Adults can enjoy games too because they help people relax and have fun. Games like puzzles or strategy games can be challenging and good for the brain. They also allow adults to spend time with friends or family.

Describe the 2 pictures

Both pictures show people spending time outdoors, but in different ways.

In the first picture, there is a family walking along the beach. The weather looks warm and sunny, and they seem happy and relaxed. The children are carrying toys, so they are probably going to play by the sea. It looks like a fun family day at the beach.

In the second picture, we can see four people standing on top of a mountain. They are probably friends or hikers enjoying the view after a long walk. The sun is setting, and the scenery looks beautiful. They have backpacks, so they must have been hiking for some time.

1. Which do you prefer?

I prefer walking along the beach because it feels very relaxing. I love the sound of the waves and the fresh air. Walking on the sand is a peaceful way to clear my mind and enjoy nature. I also like to watch the sunset over the ocean. It's a great way to feel calm and recharge after a busy day.

2. What are the characteristics that make a good resort?

A good resort should have a few key characteristics. First, it should offer comfortable accommodations with clean rooms and good amenities. Second, the staff should be friendly and helpful, making guests feel welcome. Finally, a good resort should provide a variety of activities and be located in a beautiful, peaceful area to help guests relax and enjoy their time.

TEST 1

Part 3:

1. Describe 2 pictures

The two pictures show two different games.

In the first picture, there are four people: a man, a woman, a boy, and a girl I guess they are a family. The boy wearing a long sleeve checked shirt is playing chess with his father. They look very happy. The mother is sitting on the sofa and the girl is watching the boy and the father playing chess. I think today is their day off because they are at home together. On the contrary, in the second picture, I see a man wearing headphones and holding a video game controller. In front of him, there was a big screen. He looked very focused. I think he is playing games to relax after a tiring day of work.

2. What are the attractions of these two different types of games?

Chess and video games are both fun and challenging activities, but they have different attractions. Chess is a classic game that requires logic, strategy and concentration. It can improve your mental skills and help you think ahead. Video games are more modern and diverse. They can offer different genres, graphics and stories. They can stimulate your imagination and creativity. Some video games also have social aspects, such as online multiplayer or chat functions. Both types of games can be enjoyable and rewarding in different ways.

3. Computer games are bad. What do you think?

I don't think computer games are bad. They can be fun and educational. They can also help people relax and socialize. Computer games are not bad if you play them in moderation and balance them with other activities. Some computer games can improve your skills and creativity. Computer games are just like any other form of entertainment. They have pros and cons, but they are not bad by themselves.

Describe the 2 pictures

In the first picture, we see a man standing in a snowy place. He is wearing a big furry hat, scarf, and a thick coat. The background is full of snow and trees, showing it is very cold.

In the second picture, there is a woman standing in a desert. She is wearing a long black dress that covers her body. The background is full of sand and small hills. It looks very hot and dry.

1. What are the differences between the two places?

The two places are very different. The first one is a cold, snowy place with low temperatures. People there wear thick clothes to stay warm. The second place is a hot desert with sand and strong sunlight. People wear long clothes to protect their skin from the sun. The weather, temperature, and environment are opposite. One is freezing and white, the other is hot and dry. Life in these places is very different.

2. How can surroundings affect people?

Surroundings can affect people in many ways. In cold places, people stay indoors more, wear warm clothes, and eat hot food. In hot places, people drink more water, wear light clothes, and avoid the sun. The environment also changes how homes are built, what people eat, and how they travel. Surroundings can also affect health, jobs, and lifestyle. People must adapt to their environment to live comfortably and safely.

TEST 2

Part 3:

1. Describe 2 pictures

The two pictures show two different places to eat.

In the first picture, I can see many people standing in front of street food stalls. They are enjoying the food. There are many foods displayed on the counter. I guess this is the food district because this place is very crowded. On the contrary, in the second picture, there is a woman. She has long hair and is wearing a blue t-shirt. She is using chopsticks and fork to eat food. I guess she's happy because she can enjoy food at the restaurant she likes.

2. What are the disadvantages of these two types of eating?

Eating at street food and eating in the restaurant have some disadvantages. Street food may be cheaper and faster, but it can be unhealthy and unsafe. You don't know how the food is cooked or stored. Restaurant food may be more expensive and slower, but it can be tasty, clean, and safe. However, restaurant food can also be unhealthy, too salty, or too oily. You may have to wait for a long time or tip the staff.

3. Why people don't prefer eating out alone?

Some people don't like to eat out alone because they feel lonely or bored without someone to talk to. They think that other people will judge them for not having company (không có bạn đồng hành). Eating out alone can also be expensive for some people. They would rather cook at home or order takeout and watch something on their phone or laptop. These are some of the reasons why people don't prefer eating out alone.

TEST 3

Part 3:

1. Describe 2 pictures

The two pictures show two different leisure activities.

In the first picture, there is a woman, a boy and a girl. The woman with short hair is wearing a black coat and is carrying a red bag. The boy is wearing a blue backpack and the girl with curly hair is wearing a pink backpack. They are visiting the museum. There were many ancient artifacts displayed in front of them.

On the contrary, in the second picture, I can see a boy. He is wearing a helmet and a seat belt. He is playing outdoor activities. I guess the boy is very active and wants to improve his health.

2. What are the benefits of these 2 activities?

Visiting a museum and playing an outdoor activity are two fun and healthy ways to spend your free time.

- Visiting a museum can enrich your knowledge and culture. You can learn about history, art, science, and many other topics. Museums can also inspire your creativity and curiosity.

- Playing an outdoor activity can improve your physical and mental health. You can exercise your body, breathe fresh air, and enjoy nature. Outdoor activities can also reduce your stress and boost your mood.

3. It is easier to learn when we enjoy doing it. What do you think?

I completely agree that it is easier to learn when we enjoy doing it. When we enjoy something, we pay more attention to it. We also remember it more easily. We feel happy and motivated to learn more. Learning is not boring or hard when we like it. We can also use games, stories, or songs to make learning more enjoyable.. Learning is easier when it is fun. That is why I think it is easier to learn when we enjoy doing it.

Two pictures show children's interactions with animals.

In the first picture I can see a father and his son feeding a horse. The father is wearing a blue t-shirt and the son is wearing a red t-shirt. The son seems to be very excited while feeding the horse. I guess this was probably the first time the boy played with a horse. On the contrary, in the second picture, there is a teacher and three students. They are touching the snake. I think the teacher is probably teaching his students knowledge about snakes and how to play with them. The children look very interested and excited.

2. How do the children feel in these situations?

Children have different feelings when they feed a horse or play with a snake. Feeding a horse can make them happy and excited. They can touch the horse's fur and feel its warmth. Playing with a snake can make them scared and curious. They can feel the snake's scales and its coldness. They can also watch the snake's movements and its tongue. Both activities can help children learn about animals and nature.

3. Why is it important to learn about animals?

It is important to learn about animals because they are part of our world. Animals can teach us many things, like how to care for others, how to adapt to different environments, and how to respect nature (cách quan tâm đến người khác, cách thích nghi với các môi trường khác nhau và cách tôn trọng thiên nhiên). Animals also have different roles in the ecosystem, such as providing food and controlling pests. Learning about animals can help us understand how they live, what they need, and how we can protect them. By learning about animals, we can also learn more about ourselves and our planet.

TEST 5

Part 3:

1. Describe 2 pictures

The two pictures show two different types of sports activities including team sports and individual sports.

In the first picture, I can see a group of four people. They are wearing the same outfit and trying to row a boat on the river. I think they are participating in a rowing race. They look like professional rowers. On the contrary, in the second picture there is a male athlete in a bike jersey (áo đua xe) and helmet. He is cycling very fast. I guess he is trying to reach the finish line.

2. What are the difficulties in each sport?

Each sport has its own difficulties. Rowing race is hard because you need to work with your team and keep the same pace. You also need to use a lot of strength to move the boat fast (sử dụng nhiều sức lực để di chuyển thuyền nhanh). Racing bike is hard because you need to balance on the bike and avoid obstacles (tránh chướng ngại vật). You also need to pedal fast (cần đạp nhanh) to finish the race.

3. Why do people prefer team sports to individual sports?

Some people like team sports more than individual sports because they enjoy working with others. They think it is more fun and rewarding to share goals, strategies, and achievements with their teammates. They also like the social aspect of team sports, such as making friends, supporting each other, and celebrating together. Team sports can also help people develop skills like communication, cooperation, and leadership.

TEST 6

Part 3:

1. Describe 2 pictures

The two pictures show two different locations.

In the first picture, I can see a group with their backpacks on their backs. They are hiking through the mountains. They look like professional athletes. I can see the sunny sky. It reminds me of going trekking with my friends in the mountains outside my city. On the contrary, in the second picture, I can see a blue beach and white sand with a clear blue sky. On the right of the picture, there are two chairs and an umbrella underneath a big coconut tree. The weather looks really nice.

2. What are the attractions of these places?

The mountain and the beach are two different places that have many attractions. The mountain is a place where you can enjoy nature, fresh air, and beautiful views. You can go hiking, camping, skiing, or snowboarding on the mountain. The beach is a place where you can relax, swim, and have fun. You can play in the sand, surf, or sunbathe on the beach. The mountain and the beach are both great places to visit depending on your preferences and the season.

3. What are the ways to protect natural beauty?

There are many ways to protect natural beauty. Firstly, we must reduce pollution by using renewable energy, recycling, and avoiding using plastics. Secondly, it is important to conserve water and energy, using them wisely. Thirdly, we can plant trees and flowers to create habitats for animals and insects. Lastly, promoting sustainable tourism (thúc đẩy du lịch bền vững) and encouraging others to appreciate and respect nature can also contribute to the protection of our natural beauty.

TEST 7

Part 3:

1. Describe 2 pictures

The two pictures show two different places to enjoy music.

In the first picture, I can see a man wearing a black vest. He is standing on the stage and performing. I guess he is a famous singer because there are many people in front of him watching him perform. The atmosphere here is so vibrant (sôi động). On the contrary, in the second picture, there is a man sitting on the sofa. He is wearing headphones. He looked very excited when listening to his favorite song.

2. Which do you prefer?

I prefer listening to music at home rather than in a concert. Here are some of my reasons. First, I can choose the songs I like and play them as loud or as soft as I want. Second, I can relax on my couch or bed and enjoy the music without any distractions. Third, I can save money and time by not buying tickets or traveling to the concert venue. Fourth, I can invite my friends or family over and have a fun time together. These are some of the benefits of listening to music at home.

3. What are the benefits of listening to music?

I think that listening to music has many benefits. Firstly, it can improve our mood, helping us feel happier and more positive. Secondly, music can help us escape from daily stress and help us relax and unwind. Additionally, music can enhance your memory and learning by stimulating different parts of your brain. These are why I think that listening to music has many benefits.

TEST 8

Part 3:

1. Describe 2 pictures

The two pictures show two different places to eat.

In the first picture, I can see three women eating at home. I guess they are about 25 years old. They are wearing casual clothes. There are a lot of vegetables and fruit on the dining table. The atmosphere looks very cozy and cheerful. On the contrary, in the second picture, I can see a group of four people consisting of two men and two women. They are wearing quite formal clothes. They are talking happily to each other. They are eating at a restaurant. On a table, there are some glasses and a lot of food that looks very greasy.

2. Why people eat out?

People eat out for many reasons. Firstly, they are too busy to cook at home. They may work long hours or have many activities to do. Eating out saves them time and energy. Secondly, they want to try new foods or enjoy different cuisines. They may like to explore different cultures or flavors. Finally, they want to socialize with others. They may have friends, family, or colleagues who invite them to eat out.

3. Which do you prefer?

I prefer to eat at home because it is cheaper, healthier and more comfortable. I can cook whatever I want and enjoy it with my family or friends. I don't have to worry about the quality of the food, the service or the hygiene of the restaurant. I also save time and money by not having to travel or tip. Eating at home is more relaxing and satisfying for me.

TEST 9

Part 3:

1. Describe 2 pictures

Two pictures show two different housing styles including classic style and modern style.

In the first picture, I can see a man wearing a suit and dress shoes. He is sitting at the foot of the stairs. The furniture is made of wood and the room looks like it lacks sunlight. On the contrary, in the second picture, there is a man wearing a blue shirt and blue jeans. He is sitting on the sofa and holding the remote control to choose the channel he likes. He looks very happy. The furniture is modern and the room is bright.

2. Which room do you prefer to live in?

If someone asks me which room I prefer to live in, I would say a modern room. I like modern rooms because they are more comfortable, spacious and stylish. They have smart devices, cozy furniture and minimalist design. They make me feel relaxed and happy. Classic rooms are too old-fashioned, cluttered and boring for me. They have outdated appliances, heavy curtains and dark colors. They make me feel stressed and sad. That's why I prefer a modern room over a classic one.

3. Why do people like decorating their houses?

People like decorating their houses for many reasons. Firstly, they want to make their houses more comfortable and cozy. They choose colors, furniture, and accessories that match their personality and style. Secondly, they want to impress their guests and neighbors. They follow the latest trends and buy expensive items to show off their wealth and taste. Finally, decorating can also be a fun and creative activity. People can express themselves through art. Decorating can make people happy and proud of their homes.
