

APTIS COLLEGE

Part 2:

Please tell us about the days and times you can attend courses and what subject do you like to study?

I can attend this course on Friday; the most reasonable time is from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. I like studying speaking and listening skills because I want to improve them to get high marks in the exams.

Part 3:

A: Hi! Welcome to the college. What course are you doing and why did you choose it?

Hello! I joined the English course held by teacher Alex. I decided to attend this course because I know that Yasuo is one of the best teachers at my college. It is a great opportunity to improve my English skills.

B: Welcome! How do you feel about the college so far?

The college is the most interesting place for me. The facilities are modern. Everyone is so helpful and friendly. The teachers are excellent and my English skills have markedly improved.

C: Did you hear that the college sports club has closed? What do you think about this?

Yes, I heard the news. I think it's a shame that the college sports club has closed. It was a great place for students to exercise, socialize and have fun. I hope they can find another way to support their physical and mental health.

Part 4: You are a member of a college. You received this email from the college administrator.

"Dear student,

We are writing to inform you that the end of course exams will now take place two weeks earlier than originally planned. Your exam, which was scheduled for the 21st of next month, will now take place on the 7th of next month. We apologize for any difficulty this may cause.

College Administrator"

1. Write an email to your friend. Write about your feelings and what you think the college should do about the situation. Write about 50 words.
2. Write an email to the college administrator. Write about your feelings and what you think the college should do about the situation. Write about 120 – 150 words.

Hi Sara,

How's it going? I hope everything goes well with you.

I got an email from the college administrator. They changed the exam date to two weeks earlier. That's not fair at all. I have other things to do and I need more time to study. How can they do this to us? They should change it back or give us some extra help. This is a bad situation and I don't know what to do. I hope you are doing okay. Let me know if you want to talk more.

Your friend,
Nguyen

Dear College Administrator,

I hope this email finds you in good health.

My name is Vu Khanh Nguyen. I am writing this email to express my feelings concerning the recent email that I have received from you.

According to the email, you said that our final exams would happen two weeks sooner than usual. The exams will take place on the 7th of next month instead of the 21st. To be honest, I felt blue when I heard this news.

From my perspective, I think the college should reconsider this decision and change the exam dates back to the original ones. Besides, the college should provide us with some extra help, such as revision sessions, online resources or extra time for the exams. This would be fair and reasonable for all the students who are affected by this change.

I hope you will consider my suggestions and let me know what you think. I am looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,
Nguyen
